

Privacy Policy and Associated Procedures

Purpose of the policy

This policy and associated outline outlines International Institute of Education approach to ensuring the privacy and confidentiality of all of its staff, students and relevant others.

This policy and associated procedures meet the requirements Clause 3.6 and 8.5 of the Standards for Registered Training Organisations 2015, Standard 3 of the National Code of Practice for Providers of Education and Training to Overseas Students 2018, as well as the Data Provision Requirements 2012 and National VET Provider Collection Data Requirements Policy.

Policy statements

Privacy legislation and principles

International Institute of Education has adopted the Australian Privacy Principles contained in the Privacy Act 1988.

Collection of personal information

International Institute of Education collects personal information only for the purposes of its business operations.

International Institute of Education also collects personal information about students undertaking nationally recognised training and discloses this information to the National Centre for Vocational Education Research Ltd (NCVER).

International Institute of Education provides information to staff and students about why their information is being collected and how it will be used, as well as their ability to access information held about them.

Both staff and students have the right to request that their personal information be changed.

A Privacy Notice is included in the Application for Enrolment Form and Offer Letter and Student Agreement.

Staff contracts refer to privacy rights and obligations.

All personal information is kept secure and confidential at all times.

All persons have the right to make a complaint or appeal in relation to privacy matters as per International Institute of Education Complaints and Appeals Policy and Procedures.

Sensitive information

International Institute of Education also collects sensitive information. Sensitive information is defined in the Privacy Act to include information or opinion about such things as an individual's racial or ethnic origin, political opinions, membership of a political association, religious or philosophical beliefs, membership of a trade union or other professional body, criminal record or health information.

Sensitive information will only be used by International Institute of Education:

- For the primary purpose for which it was obtained.
- For a secondary purpose that is directly related to the primary purpose.
- With an individual's consent; or where required or authorised by law.\
