MCT Oil (Medium-Chain Triglycerides): MCT oil is a type of fat that is quickly absorbed and converted into ketones, providing an immediate source of energy and supporting cognitive function.

Electrolytes: Essential for maintaining proper hydration and supporting muscle function, especially important for those following a keto diet which can lead to electrolyte imbalances.

Appetite Suppression: The combination of ACV and ketogenic ingredients helps reduce appetite, making it easier to stick to a low-calorie diet.
